Assignment of Conversion Benefits

IF YOU WERE A SHAREHOLDING OR BORROWING MEMBER OF THE SOCIETY ON 28TH FEBRUARY 1999, AND HAVE CONTINUED TO BE A MEMBER (OF EITHER TYPE) EVER SINCE THAT DATE, THE FOLLOWING WORDING DOES NOT APPLY TO YOU; IN THAT CASE, PLEASE GO TO THE USE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION SECTION. ALL OTHER APPLICANTS SHOULD READ ON.

I agree that: By applying to open a share account on or after 1st March 1999, I agree with the Society and Leeds Building Society Charitable Foundation ('the Foundation') that I will assign to the Foundation (or to any charity(ies) nominated by it, but to no other person) the right to any relevant conversion benefits (defined below). This obligation will not apply to me if I fall within any class of persons which as at today's date the Society wishes to be excluded from such obligation. My agreement is irrevocable and authorises the Society to make over to the Foundation (or to any charity(ies) nominated by it) any such benefits without further notice to me. I agree that neither the Society nor the Foundation will release me from this agreement or vary its terms. I also agree that the Society will require (on behalf of itself and the Foundation) that all applicants for share accounts who are not members of the Society will agree to the above condition (or a condition having substantially the same effect) except that the requirement will not apply to any applicants falling within any class of persons where, at the time of the applicants becoming shareholding members, the Society considers this to be inappropriate. The Society will not impose that requirement on applicants if the Society decides and announces by press release that it is no longer in the best interests of the Society to do so generally on a continuing basis. Any such decision by the Society would not have retrospective effect and I would continue to be bound by the above condition. For this purpose: 'relevant conversion benefits' means any conversion benefits which I might become entitled to receive as a shareholding member of or depositor with the Society at any time within the five years immediately following the date on which my share account is opened (or within such shorter period as the Society today considers appropriate having regard to any particular class of person within which I may fall); 'conversion benefits' means any benefits under the terms of any future transfer of the Society's business to a company (i.e. on conversion or takeover) except the statutory right to have shares in the Society (including any balances on share accounts) converted into deposits with the company; and, if the Society merges with any other society, after the date of such merger, 'Society' includes such other society. I authorise the Society to pass to the Foundation such information relating to me and my share accounts with the Society as the Foundation may reasonably require in connection with this agreement to assign. A list of the classes of persons which the Society currently wishes to be excluded from the obligation to assign (which may change from time to time) is available on request from the Society's Secretary at its Head Office.

Additional information (all or some of the below and overleaf)

1 Scheme responsible for the protection of your eligible deposit

Your eligible deposit is covered by a statutory Deposit Guarantee Scheme. If insolvency of your bank, building society or credit union should occur, your eligible deposits would be repaid up to £85,000 by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme.

2 General limit of protection

If a covered deposit is unavailable because a bank, building society or credit union is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by a Deposit Guarantee Scheme. This repayment covers at maximum £85,000 per bank, building society or credit union. This means that all eligible deposits at the same bank, building society or credit union are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance, a depositor holds a savings account with £80,000 and a current account with £20,000, he or she will only be repaid £85,000.

In some cases eligible deposits which are categorised as "temporary high balances" are protected above £85,000 for six months after the amount has been credited or from the moment when such eligible deposits become legally transferable. These are eligible deposits connected with certain events including:

- certain transactions relating to the depositor's current or prospective only or main residence or dwelling;
- a death or the depositor's marriage or civil partnership, divorce, retirement, dismissal, redundancy or invalidity;
- the payment to the depositor of insurance benefits or compensation for criminal injuries or wrongful conviction.

More information can be obtained under www.fscs.org.uk.

3 Limit of protection for joint accounts

In the case of joint accounts, the limit of £85,000 applies to each depositor.

However, eligible deposits in an account to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a business partnership, association or grouping of a similar nature, without legal personality, are aggregated and treated as if made by a single depositor for the purpose of calculating the limit of £85,000.

4 Reimbursement

The responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme is the Financial Services Compensation Scheme, 10th Floor Beaufort House, 15 St Botolph Street, London EC3A 7QU, Tel: 0800 678 1100 or 020 7741 4100, Email: ICT@fscs.org.uk. It will repay your eligible deposits (up to £85,000) within 20 working days until 31 December 2018; within 15 working days from 1 January 2019 until 31 December 2020; within 10 working days from 1 January 2021 to 31 December 2023; and within 7 working days from 1 January 2024 onwards, unless specific exceptions apply.

Where the FSCS cannot make the repayable amount available within 7 working days, it will, from 1 June 2016 until 31 December 2023, ensure that you have access to an appropriate amount of your covered deposits to cover the cost of living (in the case of a depositor which is an individual) or to cover necessary business expenses or operating costs (in the case of a depositor which is not an individual or a large company) within 5 working days of a request.

If you have not been repaid within these deadlines, you should contact the Deposit Guarantee Scheme since the time to claim reimbursement may be barred after a certain time limit. Further information can be obtained under fscs.org.uk.

Other important information

In general, all retail depositors and businesses are covered by Deposit Guarantee Schemes. Exceptions for certain deposits are stated on the website of the responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme. Your bank, building society or credit union will also inform you of any exclusions from protection which may apply. If deposits are eligible, the bank, building society or credit union shall also confirm this on the statement of account.

Exclusions List

A deposit is excluded from protection if:

- (1) The holder and any beneficial owner of the deposit have never been identified in accordance with money laundering requirements. For further information, contact your bank, building society or credit union.
- (2) The deposit arises out of transactions in connection with which there has been a criminal conviction for money laundering.
- (3) It is a deposit made by a depositor which is one of the following:
